

A SURVIVAL GUIDE FOR YOUR SCHOOL!

LOOKING FORWARD to Monday Morning

Fast, easy, low-cost ways to create a team of happier, more productive staff

DIANE HODGES, Ph.D.

LOOKING FORWARD to Monday Morning

AVAILABLE AS A
KEYNOTE, SEMINAR OR HALF-DAY WORKSHOP

Fast, easy, low-cost ways to create a team of happier, more productive staff

Year-round rewards and recognition for all school staff!

"THANK YOU for a wonderful keynote to conclude our conference. You set exactly the right tone for teachers to go back to school with positive thoughts and ideas."

—Kelly Goughnor,
Consultant, CA Department of Education

"I heard Dr. Hodges' keynote presentation and knew immediately that I wanted her to do the school year kick-off for our district. She was funny, insightful, motivating ...WONDERFUL!"

—Dr. John Sugiyama,
Superintendent, Dublin
Unified School District, CA

"You were the greatest—a FANTASTIC way to begin our school year."

—Judy Moon, Teacher,
Mt. Diablo High School, CA

Now, let your staff make their school a great place to work! "Nice job." "Way to go." Most of the recognition we receive at work comes from our colleagues. Dr. Diane Hodges uses this simple fact to your school's greatest advantage. This presentation unleashes a wealth of ideas staff members can use to create more fun, laughter, recognition and appreciation for each other...in just minutes a day!

Watch the incredible chain reaction as the positive attitudes get passed along to students. Enjoy the praise and support from parents, board members and your district's superintendent as your school climate radiates renewed enthusiasm. Diane has something for everyone—from the classroom to the cafeteria, the computer lab to school bus. She is a shining example of how to kick enthusiasm and motivation into high gear throughout your school.

Participants will learn:

- Easy ways to make a joyful event out of the most ordinary day-to-day activities
- Dozens of highly organized and creative ideas to re-energize staff meetings, holidays, lunch time, and more
- To promote a positive attitude within themselves and an enthusiastic outlook on their careers
- How having fun on the job is a simple way to improve individual performance
- How to be publicly acknowledged for their accomplishments and contributions
- To help each other stay motivated and excited about their role in education

DIANE HODGES, Ph.D. Educator • Author • Speaker

An award-winning educator for more than 25 years, Dr. Hodges is delighting audiences nationwide with her acclaimed Looking Forward to Monday Morning book and presentation series for school administrators and staff. She compiled these celebrated recognition and appreciation ideas from a desire to make her school a joyous place to be and with the enthusiastic help of fellow educators from coast to coast. She delivers it all with her trademark humor and unflinching sense for what matters and what works—in any school, including yours!

To schedule your presentation, please contact:

LOOKING FORWARD to Monday Morning

AVAILABLE AS A KEYNOTE, SEMINAR OR HALF-DAY WORKSHOP

Beyond the paycheck: Past, fun, low-cost ways to recruit and keep the best staff at your school

The school administrator's ultimate survival guide!

"Diane is FABULOUS! She had the principals and deans rolling in the aisles, taking voracious notes, and leaving her presentation with an attitude of appreciation."

—Vickie Wagner, Staff Development Specialist, Purdue University, IN

"I heard Dr. Hodges' keynote presentation and knew immediately that I wanted her to do the school year kick-off for our district. She was funny, insightful, motivating ...WONDERFUL!"

—Dr. John Sugiyama, Superintendent, Dublin Unified School District, CA

"EVERY administrator needs a copy of this book...and should keep it on top of the 'To Do' pile."

—Nelda Howton, Principal, Shoemaker High School, TX

Worried that the teacher shortage will hit your school? The U.S. will need 2.2 million new teachers over the next decade at a time when 20% of all new hires leave teaching within three years. In urban areas, 50% leave within five years. Employees rate recognition and appreciation as two of the most important reasons they stay in their jobs ...without it, they start polishing their résumés and looking elsewhere. What's happening at your school?

Join Dr. Diane Hodges for a breathtaking array of surprisingly simple and spontaneous ways to recognize the best efforts of your staff—often in just minutes a day. The dividends? Huge! From the cafeteria to the classroom, you'll immediately see increased levels of productivity, cooperation, and achievement from employees who are all "Looking Forward to Monday Morning" ...at your school!

Participants will learn:

- The difference between recognition vs. compensation
- When recognition for a job well done is a stronger motivator than money
- Why enjoyment, fun, and laughter are not just extras, but critical to staff retention
- Easy ways to implement hundreds of fun ideas—on little or no budget
- How to get your staff to want to take charge of the process, for even better results
- The four basic elements of a successful recognition campaign
- Three simple approaches—something for everyone!

DIANE HODGES, Ph.D. Educator • Author • Speaker

An award-winning educator for more than 25 years, Dr. Hodges is delighting audiences nationwide with her acclaimed Looking Forward to Monday Morning book and presentation series for school administrators and staff. She compiled these celebrated recognition and appreciation ideas from a desire to make her school a joyous place to be and with the enthusiastic help of fellow educators from coast to coast. She delivers it all with her trademark humor and unflinching sense for what matters and what works—in any school, including yours!

To schedule your presentation, please contact: